Have attended at least one NJCL convention as an NSCLer

At that convention, applicant must have provided an outstanding example of the services that the NSCL offers the NJCL

Demonstrate financial need for the award to attend convention

N.B. to Hal Rather Award

The recipient of this award does NOT have to be a Latin/Classics major, nor does it make any difference whether he or she has held or holds national SCL office.

If the recipient cannot or does not attend the following convention, the award may be offered to a runner-up or the original recipient may be allowed to use it for the following convention. Such arrangements are at the discretion of the NSCL Scholarship Committee.

The NSCL Scholarship Committee controls the applications and funds for this award. The selection of the recipient is made by this year's NSCL Executive Board, with the subsequent approval of the Scholarship Committee.

In addition to the application's information, you may also submit an optional letter of recommendation. This is not required. Please submit/share a completed, typed form and optional letter of recommendation by February 15 to scholarships@nscl.org. Any hardcopy submissions must be postmarked by February 15 and mailed to:

Mr. Jeff Coker
11345 Torino Way
Reno, NV 89521

By submitting this application, you are swearing that the information provided is accurate.
